

Teterboro Tower

(Oscar Brand & Jac Holzman)

Teterboro Tower this is Piper 2-0-2

I'm turning on my downwind leg, My fabric's come unglued
The stick is burbling in my hand, I think I feel a stall
& a bug's caught in my pitot, my gauges don't read at all

Now listen Piper 2-0-2, this is Teterboro Tower

I cannot raise the crash crew cause it is their coffee hour
& you're not cleared in the pattern, don't try a landing yet
Just circle for departure while I mooch a cigarette

Help Teterboro Tower, this is Piper 2-0-2

I'm sweating out this landing, I don't know what to do
My superhomer's on the blink, & your voice is fading fast
Please clear my on my final, or this flight may be my last

Now listen Piper 2-0-2, This is Teterboro Tower

I'd like to help you buddy, but I just don't have the power
The FAA's your only hope, so if you've time to spare
Just file a form in triplicate & sign the questionnaire

Teterboro Tower, this is Piper 2-0-2

I'm in Secaucus Hospital & I owe it all to you
I'm sorry that I cracked her up & messed your pretty field
We'll try it once around again if ever I get healed

From Folk Songs for Fun -by Oscar Brand - Hollis Music - 1961

Some slightly more militant lyrics are available (also on an Oscar Brand LP, as I recall) under the title "Itazuke Tower." The primary difference is that this version is geared to post-WWII Japan and involves an Air Force P-51 Mustang.
